REQUIRED ACADEMIC UNDERSTANDING

Successful completion of PCBS course work requires prior knowledge of the fields of study listed below. PCBS offers prerequisite refresher course webinars in these academic areas for students who have not met these requirements or are in need of review in these areas. These webinars are offered at an additional fee.

FOR EACH OF THE FOLLOWING FIELDS OF STUDY, SELECT ONLY 1 BOX THAT BEST APPLIES

Financial Statement Analysis / Accounting

Must understand basic concepts of (1) the elements of financial statements; (2) analysis of transactions and accrual accounting concepts; (3) how the balance sheet, income statement and statement of cash flows interrelate; and (4) forecasting financial position. Commercial lending experience may provide useful background in financial statement analysis, but by itself does not satisfy this requirement.

I HAVE COMPLETED THE FOLLOWING COURSE WORK THAT SATISFIES THIS REQUIREMENT:

Course(s): _____

Where: _____ When: _____

▶ IF NO COURSE WORK IS COMPLETED THAT SATISFIES THIS REQUIREMENT, CHOOSE ONE OPTION BELOW:

I HAVE EXPERIENCE THAT SATISFIES THIS REQUIREMENT. Attached is a brief written statement that specifically documents my experience and how it provides me with an academic understanding of this required field of study. NOTE: Resumes are NOT acceptable for this purpose.

or I HAVE NOT COMPLETED COURSE WORK, NOR HAVE THE EXPERIENCE THAT SATISFIES THIS REQUIREMENT but agree to take either PCBS webinars or equivalent college level coursework in order to satisfy the entrance requirements. I understand that the webinars are offered for an additional fee.

Corporate Finance

Must understand basic concepts of capital structures and shareholder wealth, including (1) assessment of risk; (2) calculation of time value of money; (3) cost-benefit analysis and estimating cash flows; (4) the cost of capital; (5) dividends, repurchases and other distribution methods.
